Who We Are

Duketrah Fisheries is a leading provider of safe, healthy, and nutritious fish products in Nigeria. We are committed to providing our customers with the highest quality products and services, and we are passionate about making a difference in the fight against hunger and malnutrition.

Our company is founded on the principles of sustainability, social responsibility, and innovation. We use sustainable aquaculture practices to raise our fish, and we are committed to giving back to the communities in which we operate. We also invest in research and development to find new ways to improve the quality and safety of our products.

We offer a wide range of fish products, including fresh fish, smoked catfish, catfish oil, catfish flakes, and catfish juveniles. We also offer a variety of value-added services, such as offtaking, contract processing, and capacity building for small holder farmers.

We are proud to be a trusted partner to our customers, and we are committed to providing them with the best possible products and services. We believe that everyone deserves access to safe, healthy, and nutritious food, and we are working to make that a reality.

What We Stand For

Safety | Innovation | Excellence

Our Vision

Duketrah Fisheries envisions a world where everyone has access to safe, healthy, and nutritious food. We believe that fish is a vital part of a healthy diet, and we are committed to providing our customers with the highest quality fish products.

Our Mission

Duketrah Fisheries is committed to providing safe, healthy, and nutritious fish products through sustainable aquaculture practices. We are also committed to giving back to the communities in which we operate and to investing in research and development to find new ways to improve the quality and safety of our products.

Core Values

Quality: We are committed to delivering the highest quality fish products and services to our customers, from our sustainably-farmed fish to our expertly smoked catfish.

Sustainability: We believe in protecting and preserving our natural resources for future generations, which is why we prioritize sustainable fish farming practices and responsible waste management.

Community: We value the relationships we have with our customers, employees, and the broader community. We strive to build long-term partnerships based on trust, respect, and transparency.

Innovation: We are constantly exploring new ways to improve our products and services, whether it's through cutting-edge technology or innovative farming techniques.

Passion: We are passionate about what we do, and we believe that this passion is reflected in the quality of our products and services. We are committed to continuously learning and growing in order to deliver the best possible experience to our customers.

Integrity: We believe in doing business with honesty and integrity, and we hold ourselves to the highest ethical standards in all of our dealings with customers, employees, and partners.

By living these core values every day, we aim to make a positive impact on the lives of our customers, employees, and the broader community, while helping to create a more sustainable and responsible fishing industry.

Who We Are for

At Duketrah Fisheries, we are dedicated to serving clients who value premium quality fish products. If you are someone who puts a premium on the taste, texture, and overall quality of your fish products, such as smoked catfish, catfish flakes, and more, then we are the perfect fit for you.

We understand that our clients demand nothing less than the best, and that's why we strive to deliver the highest quality fish products every time. With our commitment to food safety, environmentally friendly processing methods, and personnel-friendly facilities, you can trust Duketrah Fisheries to provide you with the best fish products on the market.

What We Do

Fish & Fish Products

At Duketrah Fisheries, our mission is to reduce hunger and malnutrition by constantly producing and supplying fresh fish products. We provide a wide range of high-quality fish products, including smoked catfish (both whole and chunks), fish flakes, fish fillets, and catfish oil.

We use improved technological processes to ensure that our products meet the highest food safety standards. Our emphasis on food safety is a top priority, and we strive to maintain the highest levels of quality control in our production processes.

We believe that everyone deserves access to nutritious food, and we are committed to doing our part in reducing hunger and malnutrition. We are proud to be a part of the solution and to provide our customers with the freshest, most nutritious fish products on the market. Choose Duketrah Fisheries for all your fish product needs, and help us make a difference in the world.

Off-take Services

We ensure that our customers have access to the best fish products available. Sometimes this includes sourcing sustainably raised fish from small holder farmers.

Our team is committed to providing exceptional customer service and ensuring that our customers are satisfied with our products, while still making sure that the small holder farmers are well compensated for their produce

What we do (continued)

Contract Processing

Our team of experienced professionals is equipped with state-of-the-art equipment and facilities to handle the processing of your fish products. We maintain strict quality control measures to ensure that every product that comes out of our processing plant is of the highest quality.

We understand that each of our clients has specific needs and requirements, and we work closely with them to tailor our services to their unique needs.

By choosing Duketrah Fisheries for your contract processing needs, you can rest assured that your fish products will be processed to the highest standards. Our dedication to quality and our commitment to our clients' satisfaction is what sets us apart from our competitors.

We understand that the success of our clients is directly linked to our own success, and we strive to ensure that every client we work with is completely satisfied with our services

Capacity Building

At Duketrah Fisheries, we understand the importance of empowering and supporting youth and women in the fishing industry. That's why we offer capacity building programs aimed at equipping them with the necessary skills and knowledge to become successful commercial fish producers.

Our capacity building programs provide hands-on training and education on commercial fish production, including fish farming, processing, and marketing. We also work closely with prospective fish farmers to help them develop viable business plans and secure financing for their operations.

By providing capacity building programs, we are not only helping individuals succeed in the fishing industry, but we are also supporting the growth of the industry as a whole.

The success of these individuals leads to job creation, economic growth, and food security in their communities across Nigeria.

Moreover, our capacity building programs help to promote sustainable fishing practices and responsible resource management. By educating individuals on the importance of sustainable fishing, we are helping to preserve our oceans and ensure that future generations can continue to benefit from them.

Join us at Duketraah Fisheries in our commitment to empowering youth and women and supporting prospective fish farmers in the fishing industry. Let's work together to promote sustainable fishing practices, create jobs, and build thriving communities.
